

Museums in Nykarleby

Kudbäcks Museum

Zacharias Topelkur's childhood home, Kudbäcks museum
Jakobstadsvägen 22, Nykarleby/Cookaerleby

Nykarleby Jernstig

Museum Råbäck Nykarleby Jernstig
Ångösvägen 113, Kängö

Finland's Swedish School Museum

The first Swedish folk school in Österbotten was founded in Mursala in 1862. The school is today a museum which shows via everyday items and decorated classrooms how children attended school in the past, and how folk schools developed in Swedish-speaking Finland.
Storösvägen, Mursala

Nykarleby Local Museum

Jakobstadsvägen 5, Nykarleby/Cookaerleby

Jeppo Local Museum

Kyrkvägen 105, Jeppo/Öpave

Mursala Local Museum

Södra Mursalavägen 71, Mursala

Torne Museum

Ångösvägen 150, Pernåla

Smed's Manor Museum

Sockelavägen 326, Seckelö

KXVI Company Museum

Käppgränd, Jeppo/Öpave

Soldier's Village

Lönnevägen, Ålgårva

Kängö hembygdsmuseum

Lukavägen 9-11, Nykarleby/Cookaerleby

ÖDP's Farm Museum

Ånnevägen (farm-tyre office building), Nykarleby/Cookaerleby

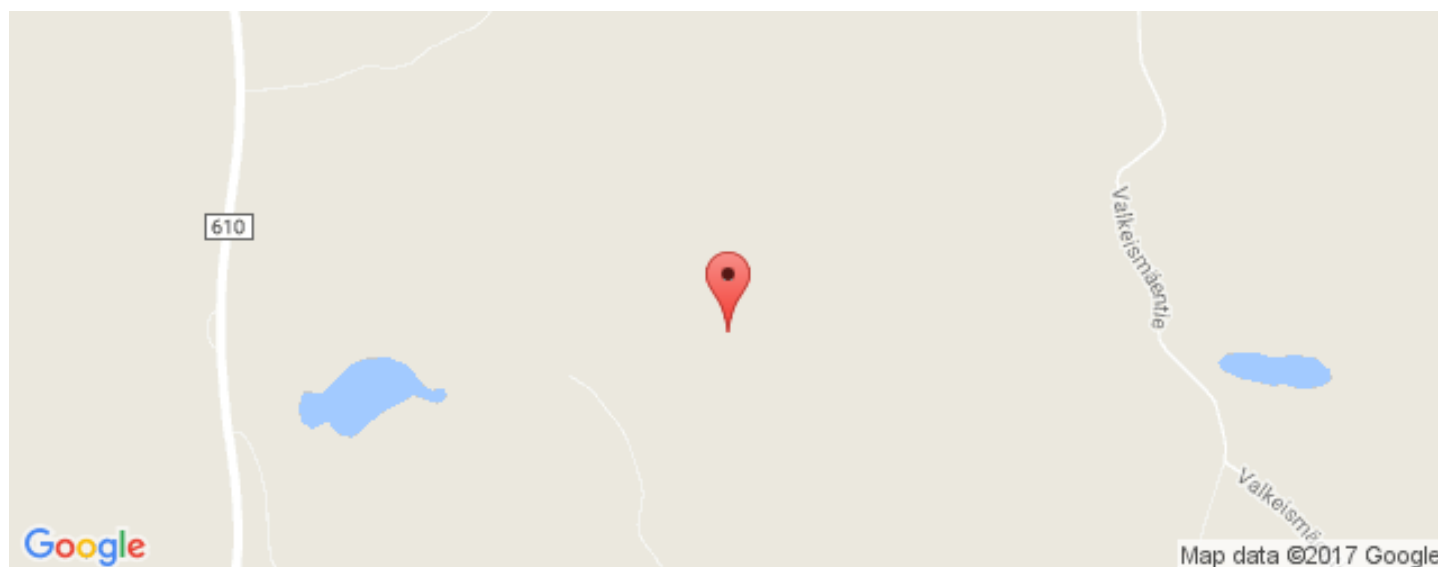

Museums in Nykarleby

Finland

<http://www.nykarleby.fi/kultur-och-fritid>

Museums in Nykarleby

Museums in Nykarleby

Finland

<http://www.nykarleby.fi/kultur-ant-fritid>

